

Williamson County Art Guild General Meeting - Minutes April 4, 2017

The meeting was called to order by President Ted Keller at 6:30 pm The mission of WCAG was stated and Board members introduced.

New members, Christina Gonzales and her sons Matthew (photography) and Jonathan (acrylic figurative) and Mark and Ann Harmon, photographers, were introduced.

A nonmember visitor and fiber artist, Adrienne Arose was introduced.

Information about dues payments, and sale payments was explained.

A Motion that the WCAG make a one-time $200 donation in the next 60 days to "The Georgetown Project" (which includes "The Nest" for high school students) with the designation that the money be used specifically to provide art-related supplies for their students. "Georgetown After School Action Program" for intermediate school students was presented, seconded and unanimously approved by the membership,

The treasurers report was given by Teresa Summerlin.

The business meeting was suspended at 6:45 for a presentation by Janet Fulk and Charlotte Barbrini on "The Business of Marketing your Art". The very interesting presentation included several useful handouts.

At 7:30 the business meeting was resumed

Framer's Gallery coordinator, I Charlie Dunn reminded members of the monthly opportunity to hang art for $10 per piece.

Wesleyan Coordinator, Diana Einwich reminded the membership of the May 17th change out and that the show will be Photography only. Hangers are to make their own tags and an 11x14 size is suggested as maximum.

St. David's Hospital Healing Arts Coordinator Jan Frazier reminded members pictures are due at the hospital at 3:30 Friday, April 7th.

Jester Annex chair, Janet Fulk reminded members that the show can handle large entries Members should call by 4/16, and the show hangs on the 21st between 8 - 10 am and is up for 2 months.

Charlotte Barbini is showing at Poppies Pies.

The April Challenge Theme, April Showers had 8 participants.

The May 2nd general meeting will include a presentation by Ampersand Art Products. The Challenge Theme will be Spring and Summer Flowers.

Members were reminded to bring art supplied for "The Nest" to the May meeting.

Meeting was adjourned by President Ted Keller at 8:06 pm.

Respectfully submitted by Viva Jones, Secretary, March 23, 2017.